

We insure that the highest standards of integrity are applied to all our activities and we act in accordance with national and international best practices.

We ensure that the highest standards of integrity are applied to all our activities in accordance with national and international best practices.

OUR ETHIC RULES ARE THE FOLLOWING :

- Act with skill and care, keep skills up to date.
- Prevent corrupt practice and declare conflicts of interest.
- Respect and acknowledge the work of other colleagues.
- Ensure that reports are accurate and justified with evidence.
- Minimise impacts on the environment.
- Discuss issues of disagreement in open meetings.
- Do not mislead; present evidence honestly and impartially.
- Economise on energy, water, paper and other working materials.
- Respect safety measures for self and colleagues.

Treat clients cordially with honesty, kindness, respect and a smile.

Reports on suspected violations of ethic rules can be submitted by filing a written report on line or by fax or e- mail addressed to the manager: info@eyelander.org